

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Office of Publication—Second Street, between Houston and Throckmorton. Entered at the Postoffice as Second-class Matter.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 11.

PERSONAL.

B. J. Smith of Bowie is in the city. V. B. Curtis of Chicago is in the city.

Sheriff W. T. Maddox went to Belton yesterday.

J. J. Turner is quite sick at his home on Main street.

N. S. Johnson, a popular travelling man of St. Louis, is in the city.

The Misses Preston, two talented young ladies of Paris, are at the Pickwick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Burgower were registered at the Pickwick last night. They were recently married in Denison and are just returned from the bride tour.

Mr. Dan Kernigan, formerly of Jefferson, arrived in this city yesterday. He will be connected with the wholesale grocery house of Bateman & Bro., and is quite an acquisition to our city.

W. A. Garner and family have returned from a seven weeks' visit to Devil's Lake, Dakota, and Lake Minnetonka, Minn. Mr. Garner reports that Mrs. Garner and children are much improved by the trip. He says he gained in flesh and had the finest kind of a time, fishing in the lakes and enjoying the delightful weather.

Mr. F. Weber Benton, special correspondent and representative of the Missouri Republican, is in the city on business for his paper. He is currently reported that Mr. Benton has purchased the Herald-News office in Denison and will take charge October 1. Mr. B. is a gentleman of fine business and literary attainments, and any courtesies extended him by the public will be duly appreciated.

LOCALETTES.

The cotton market has fully opened in this city.

The opera-house is being handsomely finished and decorated under the immediate supervision of Mrs. Benton.

Messrs. Daggett, Martin & Co. have moved their office into the new brick building near the lower end of Main street.

The Fort Worth Building and Loan association held a meeting on Tuesday and loaned out $1000 at 5 per cent, and $500 at 13 per cent.

The following persons have been licensed to marry by the county clerk: James Morris to Mrs. Carrie Miller, W. C. Smith to Miss S. A. Blue.

Mrs. Ellis Ellington of this city whose illness was noticed yesterday, died in Atlanta, Texas, early yesterday morning. She was buried at her old home in Douglasville, Cass county.

A party of Northwestern excursionists and sightseers, guests of the Gould system, arrived in Fort Worth from the south last night. The party is composed of twenty-four ladies and gentlemen.

An alarm of fire was turned on from box last night and brought out the entire fire department. It was caused by the explosion of an oil lamp in a house next to Godwin's stable. The flames were extinguished without the aid of the department.

The most amusing game of base ball ever played in Fort Worth was that between the Dallas and Fort Worth colored clubs at the base ball park yesterday afternoon. Dallas won by a score of 17 to 8. The clubs played again this afternoon, the game commencing at 3 o'clock sharp.

The Thialian Social club and the board of directors held a meeting last night in the office of Dr. W. D. M. Mason. The object of the meeting was to take some steps in relation to the formation of a public library. A committee was appointed to confer with the officers of the Ladies' Exposition society and report at the next meeting. The library question is becoming and the Thialians are working very hard to attain the desired end.

The Courts.

In the county court yesterday W. L. Burnett vs. the M. P. R. y company, judgment for plaintiff for $75.

Theilman vs. Moss & Curtis, on trial judgment court adjourned.

In Justice Zinn's court: G. E. & A. H. Tandy vs. T. & P. Railroad company, suit for damages for $99.00 for grass and fence burned.

David Jackson vs. T. & P. Railroad company, suit for $75 damages. Judgment for plaintiff for $37 for killing a mule.

C. C. Dume vs. Missouri Pacific, for loss of baggage. Judgment for plaintiff for $7.50.

C. F. Herring vs. Missouri Pacific, for crippling a steer. $12 judgment for plaintiff.

G. E. and A. H. Tandy vs. Texas & Pacific Railroad company, for killing a yoke of oxen. Judgment for plaintiff $65.

District court will convene for the fall term on Monday next.
